To Whom It May Concern

This is to recommend Michael Chilton who has frequently been contracted to carry out painting and decorating at Dorneywood. Dorneywood is at present the official country residence of the Deputy Prime Minister and was previously used by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. Many senior British and international politicians and royalty have been and are entertained at Dorneywood and it is, therefore, most important that the decoration of the house is retained at the highest standard. The Trustees who administer the house continue to employ Michael Chilton because of his craftsmanship and the high quality of his painting and decorating.

Michael Chilton is a most pleasant and unassuming person who is completely trustworthy, discreet and who can always be relied upon to carry out his work speedily and to the highest standards.
